

Remsoft Ltda

Solutions Analyst

Job title: Solutions Analyst

Work Location: Brazil - Remote (Home office, but living near any major airport)

Division/Department: Remsoft Ltda

■ Full-time Position

Responsibilities:

- Delivery of professional services to Remsoft clients, including:
 - Training workshops
 - Software technical support and model troubleshooting assistance
 - Enhanced support services
 - Model quality assurance testing
 - Model audit services
 - Specification requirements
 - Project services in general for Remsoft solutions
- Development of models in Woodstock Optimization Studio platform and solution documentation
- Creation of automatic update scripts for Woodstock models and data validation routines with Remsoft Integrator
- Preparation and delivery of online and/or live knowledge transfer sessions and training modules
- Support sales and marketing initiatives, including software capability demonstrations, client needs surveys, case study writing, business case development with customers and full support of Remsoft conferences

Desired Qualifications:

- Advanced knowledge in operations research methods applied to forest planning process modeling
- Strong background in forest planning, financial modeling, and asset valuation
- Good foundation in programming logic, geographic information system tools, database design and SQL query skills
- Strong oral communication, writing and presentation skills
- Strong problem-solving and planning process improvement skills
- Fast learning ability, adaptability, and creativity
- Highly organized, with focus on service quality and delivery time
- Client oriented with strong consulting skills (e.g., active listening, understanding client challenges, etc.)

Requirements:

- B.Sc in Forest Engineering
- Advanced communication skills in English
- Flexibility to travel

Assets:

- MSc. degree in Forest Management
- Background as key-user of optimized solutions developed in Remsoft applications
- Proven experience as forest planning analyst or consultant
- Advanced communication skills in Spanish

To express interest in this opportunity please send an email with your resume to franc.roxo@remsoft.com.